Please Note: FCC membership information is for the personal use of FCC members only. The FCC Board will not make its membership list available to anyone for commercial purposes but occasionally will share its mailing list with organizations that share our mission and vision (such as the Portland Classical Chinese Garden & the Northwest Adoptive Families Association).

Check here if you would like to opt out of making your name/address available to such organizations.

Please protect members' privacy by using information in the directory only for such personal purposes as contacting other adoptive families. You are responsible for protecting members' privacy by adhering to these guidelines. Be advised, however, that if you choose to be included in the directory, information you provide may become available to a broader audience than the FCC membership.

Your application must be received by November 1, 2009 for your listing to be included in the next FCC Directory.

Check here if you do NOT want your family information to be listed in the FCC Directory.

By agreeing to membership in Oregon and Southwest Washington FCC, I (we) hereby consent to the use and publication of unidentified photos of my (our) children at FCC events in all FCC materials, newsletters and/or the FCC website, or for any other non-commercial purpose related to the mission of FCC.

FCC is a fully volunteer organization. All events or programs are only offered because of FCC members volunteering their time and energy. Please consider giving back some of your time to benefit all of our children.
